

APPLICATION

It's Elemental Annual Two - Day Fine Craft Sale

You are invited to apply for the annual fine craft sale to be held December 4 & 5, 2010 in conjunction with the It's Elemental Fine Craft Exhibition. For the second year, the craft sale will be two days long. For the first time, participation in the fine craft sale will be juried separately from participation in the fine craft exhibit. You are invited to apply for one or both of the shows. However, participation in one show does not guarantee acceptance into the other.

The Fine Craft Sale offers an opportunity to the fine craft artist from Coconino, Yavapai, or Navajo county to have a booth in a marketplace setting and a chance for the public to purchase affordable fine craft. Preference will be given to the artisans whose hand made work is well designed and executed, affordable, and judged to be appealing to the buying public.

Important Information

The sale will run from 10am to 4 pm on Saturday and Sunday, December 4 & 5. Artist must be present both days from 10am to 4pm.

Set up time will begin at 8am on Saturday, December 4. Booth locations will be assigned at that time.

Booths are approximately 10" x 10" and will be located in the Gallery and Theater. Artists are responsible for their own display although some tables are available for use.

Artists are responsible for their own sales. A 30% commission will be assessed for all sales with a maximum commission ceiling of $250. Commission is due at the end of the day on Sunday, December 5 and can be paid with cash or check.

There is a nonrefundable jury fee of $25 if you are only applying for the Fine Craft Sale. If you are also applying for the It's Elemental Exhibit, the $35 fee also covers the application for the Sale.
